“A little bit of light dispels a

~ Rabbi Schneur Zalmon
of Liadi

Our High Holiday Cantor, Hazzan Colman Reaboi

"I strive to have a mixture of musical styles at services. Whatever the reason, if you come for active, upbeat musical participation, or if you come to listen, relax, and meditate in silent prayer, you will hear the music that speaks to your heart. The words to the prayers are the same- it is the music that gives it the flavor!"

Group Teki'ah G'dolah

Do you have a shofar?
Be a part of our sounding of the final teki'ah g'dolah at the end of Yom Kippur services (approx. 7:00 pm). Rabbi Karlin will be storing the shofarot in his office of those who would like to leave them in the building over Yom Kippur.

Standing Before the Torah at Ne'ilah

Many of us find it personally meaningful to approach the open Aron Kodesh (Ark) for a final private prayer as the holiest day of our year wanes. Once again, this year we will invite individuals and families to do so, beginning at about 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday.

YOU ARE INVITED TO OUR YOM KIPPUR BREAK-FAST
